

AUSTRALIAN (JUNIOR J2) FORMULA FUTURE J2 CHAMPIONSHIP

MACK KENNEDY TROPHY

The Mack Kennedy Trophy was originally presented for competition for the 75c.i. Inboard Hydroplane class in 1960 and was contested until 1973. The trophy was reallocated to 6 litre Open Inboard in 1982 until the Open class was deleted in 1996.

The J2 Class was first run in 1993, and was then suspended for eight years while issues regarding age of drivers and horsepower of the engine were resolved the the Maritime Services Board of NSW.

Following the resolution of these issues the Class resumed racing and at AGM in 2004 the National Council reallocated the MACK KENNEDY TROPY to J2 class. The AGM in July 2010 renamed the class FORMULA FUTURE J2.
